ORDER ASSESSING CIVIL PENALTIES

This matter came on to be heard by the Tennessee Ethics Commission ("Commission") on June 24, 2008, at its regularly scheduled meeting upon Commission staff's presentation of documentation substantiating that Respondent failed timely to file a Semi-Annual Lobbying Expenditure Report ("Report") which each employer of a lobbyist is required to file pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-303(a).

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the entire record in this matter, the Commission finds as follows:

1. Registration. Southeastern Emergency Physicians was registered as an employer of a lobbyist for 2007.
2. Semi-Annual Lobbying Expenditure Report.
 - A. On October 2007, Commission staff notified Respondent by electronic mail that it was required to file a Report for the period ending September 30, 2007, and that such Report was due to be filed by November 15, 2007.
 - B. As of November 15, 2007, Respondent had not filed its Report for the period ending September 30, 2007.
 - C. On December 5, 2007, Commission staff mailed Respondent a Notice of Failure to File Semi-Annual Lobbying Expenditure Report ("Notice") by first class mail.
 - D. Respondent did not respond to said Notice and did not file its Report.
 - E. Respondent timely filed its Report for the period ending March 31, 2007. At the time, it timely notified the Commission of the change in its registered name.
 - F. Respondent is in possession of the Commission's manual for lobbyists and employers of lobbyists as required by Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-114(c) (1), which contains the requirement of filing Reports.

G. Respondent had sufficient notice of the requirement of filing the Report for the period ending September 30, 2007, in advance of its due date of November 15, 2007.

3. Notice of violation.

A. On March 12, 2008, Commission staff sent Respondent, by certified mail, return receipt requested, a Notice that the Commission intended to consider assessment of civil penalties against Respondent at its April 22, 2008 meeting, because of its failure to file its Report by November 15, 2007 ("Show Cause Notice.")

B. The Show Cause Notice set forth the allegations, the maximum amount of civil penalties that could be assessed, the date, place, and time of the meeting, and Respondent's opportunity to participate in an informal proceeding at the meeting either by appearing personally or by submitting a sworn statement and documents.

C. The Commission received a return receipt substantiating that Respondent received the Show Cause Notice on March 13, 2008.

4. Filing of Report. The Commission received Respondent's Semi-Annual Lobbying Expenditure Report on March 13, 2008.

5. Showing of Cause. Respondent sent the Commission a written response to the Show Cause Notice on March 17, 2008, explaining that no contact name was listed on the Notice of Failure to File and Show Cause Notice which resulted in confusion and delay. This matter was on the agenda at the Commission's regularly scheduled meetings on April 22, 2008, May 27, 2008 and June 24, 2008. Respondent did not appear at any of the Commission meetings to explain its conduct.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Respondent had a duty under Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-303(a) to file a Report for the six (6) month period ending September 30, 2007. This Report was due to be filed no later than November 15, 2007.

2. Under Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-306(a)(iii), the Commission may administratively assess a civil penalty of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per day up to a maximum of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00) if an employer of a lobbyist fails, without good cause, to timely file its Report.

3. Respondent did not show good cause why it failed to file its Report by November 15, 2007.

4. Therefore, it is appropriate for the Commission to assess a civil penalty pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-303(a). The Commission would be within its authority to assess the maximum penalty of seven hundred fifty ($750.00) dollars.

5. Because Respondent filed promptly upon receiving Show Cause Notice, had timely informed the Commission of its change of registered name and provided a reasonable explanation, which are mitigating factors, the Commission finds it appropriate to assess a civil penalty of three hundred dollars ($300.00).

6. This assessment cannot become final until after respondent has been afforded notice and an opportunity for a hearing. Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-107(8). Respondent's failure to participate in the informal assessment process is without prejudice to its right to a contested case hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, Tenn. Code Ann. §§ 4-5-101—4-5-325.

ORDER

It is therefore ORDERED as follows:

1. A civil penalty in the amount of three hundred dollars ($300.00) is assessed against Respondent for failure to timely file a Semi-Annual Lobbying Expenditure Report.

2. The Executive Director shall enter this Order.

3. The Executive Director shall cause a copy of this Order to be provided to the Respondent, by either personal service, certified mail, return receipt requested, or overnight delivery.

4. Respondent shall have the right to seek reconsideration of this Order by filing with the Commission, within fourteen (14) days after the date of entry of this Order, a written Request for Reconsideration in the form set forth in the Commission's draft Rules on Administrative Sanctions.

5. Alternatively, Respondent shall have the right to initiate a contested case proceeding by filing with the Commission, within thirty (30) days after the date of entry of this Order, a Petition for a contested case hearing in the form set forth in the Commission's draft Rules on Administrative Sanctions.

6. Along with this Order, the Executive Director shall provide Respondent a copy of the Commission's draft Rules on Administrative Sanctions.

7. If Respondent does not timely file a Request for Reconsideration or a Petition for a contested case hearing, this Order shall become final and shall form the basis for legal action to collect the civil penalty.

SO ORDERED, this 30th day of June, 2008
